

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, April 27. 1704.

From the Paris Gazette April 19.

Venice, March 29.

They write from Dalmatia that General Zeno is taking care to reinforce the Garrisons and Posts on the Frontiers of that Country, because the Turks are drawing their Forces together towards Trebigna in the Hertzogovia, and in Bosnia. This News is confirm'd by Letters from Ragusa, which add, that the Turks are making great Preparations by Sea and Land, and that a Considerable Body of their Troops was marching from Sophia towards Belgrade, and was actually arriv'd between Nissa and Semendria on the Danube. We have Advice from Corfu, that the Procurator Soranzo, late Ambassador extraordinary from our Republick to the Grand Signior, is arriv'd at Napoli de Romania from Constantinople.

From the Amsterdam Gazette April 25.

Venice, April 12. They write from Casal, that Collonel Paul Diack, who was taken Prisoner in a Skirmish, and brought in thither, is very kindly treated by the Duke of Vendome; and is suffer'd to walk about the Town, but not without 2 Men to guard him.

From the Paris Gazette dated April 19.

Casal, March 31. Yesterday the Duke of Vendome went out to take a View of the Roads that lead to Villanova and Moran, (where the Enemies are quarter'd,) situate within a League of this Place. He had with him 150 Carabineers, 50 chosen Horse, 2 Companies of Grenadiers, and 50 Hussars. Some of the Enemies Horse, in Number 150 or 200, appearing, the Duke of Vendome caus'd them to be attack'd by part of his Detachment, which put them to Flight and pursued them to Villanova. The Sieur Tavanor, who commanded the Hussars, attack'd the Imperial Hussars, kill'd some of them, and took others, among the latter the famous Paul Diack, who commanded the Enemies Party, and who is brought hither. Between 7 and 8000 Recruits that were embark'd in Provence, are landed on the Coast of Italy, and the rest are expected daily.

Strasbourg, April 6. We are forwarding the Preparations here for the next Campaign. The Cannons for Battery, the Mortars, and Field-Pieces, are already drawn out of our Arsenal. A great quantity of Bisket is baking in this City, a great number of Waggon are got ready, and a Camp is mark'd out in our Neighbourhood. The Advices from the Moselle inform us that the Fortifications of Traerbach are strengthening, and that an Army is drawing together on that side, with a Train of Artillery, to be commanded by the Count de Coignies: that the Enemies having taken Umbrage, are likewise drawing together an Army on the lower Moselle, towards which the Dutch furnish 12 Battallions; and that the Deputies of the Princes whose Dominions lye about that part of the Rhine are Assembled at Coblenz, with whom Major General Hompesch has conferr'd on the part of the States General; and they have already resolv'd to give Orders for providing a Magazine of Forrage. According to the Letters from Frankfort of the 30th Ult. The Troops of Mentz and Hannover that were quarter'd in the Neighbourhood of that City, were march'd towards the Lines of Buhl and Stollhoffen: Those of the Landgrave of Darmstadt were to follow them with all expedition; but those of Hesse Cassel could not be ready to march till the beginning of May.

From the Amsterdam Gazette April 25.

Philipsburg, April 19. Deputies are arriv'd here from the Neighbouring Princes and States, to hire 300 Waggon which may at all times be ready to carry Provisions and Ammunitions to the Army. The Enemies have made no Motion yet, tho' they are in a readiness to decamp, and their Boats for making Bridges are already loaded on Carriages.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 29.

Frankfort, April 23. The Troops of the Allies are all on the March upwards, towards the Lines and other Places appointed for their Rendezvous. A Regiment of Horse, and another of Dragoons, Prussians, pass'd the 19th through this City, in their way towards the Lines of Stollhoffen. Yesterday they were follow'd by a Regiment of Foot; and the rest of their Infantry have pass'd the Main at Rumpelheim, and are marching the same way. Our Magistrates have given out Commissions for raising 2 Companies of Foot, which are to reinforce those that were sent last to the Lines of Stollhoffen. *Part of the Enemies Army commanded by the Marshal de Tallard, pass'd the Rhine a few days ago at Fort Kehl, and posted themselves near Offenbourg, where they continue. The Prince of Baden and the Prussian General Wartenleben continue at Aschaffenburg. The Marshal de Tallard is still at Strasbourg.

From the Amsterdam Courant dated May 1.

Heidelberg, April 25. 'Tis reported that the following Disposition of the Forces of the Allies is agreed on; the Body at present commanded by General Thungen, and the Troops of the Duke of Wirtemberg are to guard the Passages of the Black Forrest; General Stirum is to observe the Elector of Bavaria on the Danube; and the Troops of Hanover, with the rest that are in the Lines at Stollhoffen, are to defend them against the Enemy. The Duke of Wirtemberg has been to take a View of Friburg; and has caus'd it to be furnish'd with the Cannon it wanted. 8000 Boors, are constantly at Work, to throw up Intrenchments in the Passages of the Black Forrest, and to perfect the Lines.

From the Amsterdam Gazette April 29.

Paris, April, 18. The Marshal de Tallard, will begin to enter upon Action the 22d of this Month; to endeavour to convey the Succours desir'd to the Elector of Bavaria, who according to the last Advices brought from his Electoral Highness by the Sieur du Bois, has sent out a Detachment to facilitate the passage of these Succours.

Messire Jaques Benigne Bossuet, Bishop of Meaux, died here the 12th of this Month, in the 78th Year of his Age. He was Councillor of State in Ordinary, Chief Almoner to the Dutchess of Burgundy, Conservator of the Privileges of the University of Paris, Superior of the Royal Colledge of Navarre, one of the 40 Members of the French Academy; and formerly Preceptor to the Dauphin.
